

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1898.

ONE CENT.

Story CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give away anything for nothing. A newspaper is a business, and like any other business, it must pay for its goods and services. A newspaper is a business, and like any other business, it must pay for its goods and services. A newspaper is a business, and like any other business, it must pay for its goods and services.

We'll Break the Rule!

January, as a rule, is a dull month for clothing people. We believe much of the dullness is the fault of the merchants. They labor under the impression that nearly everyone has laid in their winter supplies and fear to expend money for printer's ink. We will break the rule and see what virtue there is in printer's ink and the offer of good clothing at about 50 cents on the dollar. Now, the first thing you want to do is to read this ad carefully; the next is to come and see the goods advertised. What will follow will be a rule-breaker.

On Thursday morning, January 13th, and until the end of the month, all our fine Beaver Overcoats—garments that sold for $10, $12 and $15—will go at $9.75.

Our finest Beaver, Kersey and Cover Overcoats that sold at $18, $20 and $25 will go at $15.

Our Cheviot and Cassimere Suits that sold at $10, $12 and $15 will go at $9.75.

Our finest Cheviots, Worsted and Cassimere Suits that sold at $15, $18 and $20 will go at $12.

We need not comment on qualities. Everybody knows what class of clothing we sell.

$4 90! $4 90!

This represents the selling price of 250 all-wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that we recently closed out from C. Meyers & Bro., Philadelphia. Not a suit in the lot that isn't worth $9. They come in four styles and all sizes. We believe them the greatest bargains we were ever able to offer you. Thursday morning the entire line will be in our show-window. Look for the $4 90 suit. It's a hummer.

For extra bargains in fine shoes come to us. We want to close out our heavy shoes to make room for our spring stock.

Spot Cash will be the watchword during this sale.

HECHINGER & CO
LEADERS IN FINE
CLOTHING AND SHIRTS.

...THE...
BEE HIVE

...THE...
BEE HIVE

A MIDWINTER Remnant Sale!

In a great stock like ours there is naturally a large accumulation of remnants of all kinds. We will have on sale for this week, at prices so low that they appear ridiculous, remnants of finest silk and dress goods, percales, plumbago, calicoes, cutting cloths and all goods that could be placed. Your choice of any of these at prices less than one-half original cost. We have still on hand a few REMNANT LOTS of all-wool Skirts at 30c; Children's jackets, worth from $3.50 to $4.00, your choice at remnant prices $1.50 and $1.00; another lot of large sized Turkish Bath Towels, worth 15c, remnant price 9c.

ARRIVED TODAY, two cases best Standard Calicoes and Percales, all the latest designs and patterns for Spring, 1898. Give these a critical inspection; you will find the greatest and choicest assorted stock ever known in this vicinity. Remember, we are still selling Turkey Red, Indigo and best Shirting Calicoes at 30c. Good grade Canton Flannel, yard wide, 8c. Fine Outing Cloth, colored patterns, 5c. yard. Rubber Hairpins 6c. dozen. Seam Brads 3c. hundred. Real Buckskin Gloves 90c. A great leather working Glove 10c. Paper pins 1c. Mourning Pins 1c. a box. A great stock of goods to suit all tastes and purses.

ROSENAU BROS.,
KINGS OF LOW PRICES. PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WATHER SIGNALS.

While STRONG—FAIR.

Blue—RAIN or SNOW.

With Black ABOVE—"will WARMER grow."

If Black's BAROMET—GOLDEN!" will be!

Other Black's shown—no change we'll see.

THE ABOVE FORECASTS are made for a period of twenty-four hours, ending at 10 o'clock to-morrow evening.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. Lee B. Gray is in Chicago.

Mrs. Alice Bryan and Mrs. Sarah Case are at Mt. Olivet spending a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cox went to Cincinnati Saturday afternoon to visit their daughter, Miss Roberts.

Misses Annie, Nannie and Susan Clarke have returned home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Dr. Ross of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Noland have returned to their home at Corpus Christi, Tex., after a visit to relatives here.

Miss Louise Bruer of Paris, who has been in Cincinnati several weeks, is expected here this week for a visit to friends.

Mrs. John Hise and little son have returned to their home in Cincinnati after a visit to her mother, Mrs. B. E. Clarke of Clinton.

All matter for publication must be sent in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 318, and send it in.

Use Sweet Blossom Corn

Fire Insurance—John C. Everett.

The sale of personality of the late J. R. Branch netted $435.95.

Henrietta Lutz of this city has been granted a pension of $9 a month.

Teeth extracted without pain. Dr. W. J. Cartmell, over Harry Taylor's. Phone 60.

Ray's Cough Syrup will cure that cough or money refunded. At P. O. Drugstore.

Saturday night's wind carmened one of the Streetcar Company's poles at the loop.

An inventory of the personality of the late J. R. Branch shows a valuation of $279.70.

Postmaster Chenoweth was for a few days confined to his home with an attack of erysipelas.

Prof. Fred Terry of this city will give a graphophone entertainment at the colored Church in Dover this evening.

The Chesapeake and Ohio will pass through the refunding of its bonds, $35,000 a year, dating from June 30th, 1898.

During the "blizz" Saturday night one of the windows of Dr. Samuel's office blew in. The Doctor was in another part of the house.

Our Diamond and Watch bargains have never been equaled. Murphy, the Jeweler's store is headquarters for fine goods at low prices.

A KENTUCKY IDEAL.

Kentucky! O. Kentucky!

I love your classic shades.

Where the fair furies

Of the dark-eyed southern maids.

Where the mocking bird is singing

"Mid the blossoms newly born!"

Where the corn is full of berries,

And the Colonnels full of corn!

Velvet Molasses Candy at Traxler's

Country produce wanted at Langdon's.

Special sale on Diamond Studs at McCarthy's this week.

Chenoweth's Cream Lotion heals chaps; is not sticky or greasy. Try it.

The usual Mayville delegation is today attending County Court at Flemingsburg.

Concord Lodge of Oddfellows has given $50 to the proposed Widows and Orphan Home.

Grover Cleveland has purchased a tract of land near Princeton, N. J., for use as a game preserve.

The Oddfellows Lodge at Ghent, Ky., has subscribed $300 to the Black Diamond promotion fund.

Lexington's long drawn out Majority fight was decided by the Court of Appeals decision in favor of Simral.

The Bribery Investigating Committee of the Ohio Senate decided to go to Cincinnati to find out a few things.

Advertising

Resumption

Means business resumption. It is wise to start early. It is wiser never to stop. If it pays to keep your front doors open, it must pay to keep your name before the readers of THE LEDGER—they are your customers....

Judge Harbison will hold a special term of the Circuit Court at Flemingsburg next Monday.

Hanover College of Indiana has received an endowment of $30,000 for a chair of physics.

With a couple of weeks good weather Major W. H. Frederick will complete the big storehouse for the Cotton Mills.

William P. Dinger of Newport, formerly of this city, married Miss Bessie Vinal of Cincinnati a few days ago.

Governor Bradley has appointed Hon. Garrett S. Wall of this city to attend the National Commercial Congress at Tampa, Fla.

Senator Bell has introduced a bill making the theft of any article of the value of $10 a felony. Twenty dollars is now the limit.

After nearly a week's wrangle in Judge Newell's Court over a petition to reopen and change Foster's Run Road, the jury disagreed and the wrangle will all be gone over again.

Constable Dawson left this morning in charge of Mike Teeters, whom he arrested yesterday at the mouth of Crooked creek, charged with stealing a cow in Boone county.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning the telephone in Colonel John C. Adamson's residence burned out, setting fire to an umbrella and chair sitting nearby. Fortunately the discovery was made in time to prevent serious damage. The trouble was caused by an electric wire crossing the telephone line.

James H. Kay Saturday executed a deed of trust to D. J. Rees for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Rees qualified with John T. Parker surety. There was no statement of liabilities or assets, only so far as to exempt his homestead in 1844 acres of land, on which there is a mortgage of $4,000 to the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Mr. W. H. Hicks, the well known teacher of this county, and Miss Ella Yancey of Platteville will marry tomorrow evening at the residence of the bride, the Rev. N. G. Grizzle officiating.

Mr. Pearce Browning, representing the Ohio Valley Pulley Works, is now touring the South in the latest of the above corporation. His first stopping place was at Knoxville where he writes he sold a carload of pulleys.

Phil Lucas is the son of his father James. They live at Painscott. Phil went to Cincinnati and "cooled in" a check for $50, said to have been signed by James Lucas. When it was found to be a forgery Phil was locked up and he now has trouble to burn.

It is understood that Messrs. J. B. Newton and Wallace Chappell of this city have purchased the Campbell Sawmill at Aberdeen, and will soon engage in business as the Ohio River Lumber Company.

At Portsmouth Walter Helt, aged 19, while playfully playing with a playful revolver, playfully shot and killed Henry Austin. It was such a fine joke that Helt set up the plea that it was an accident, but the Grand Jury has just indicted him for manslaughter all the same.

Saturday night's wind was a howling success. Among other things it blew down a section of fence at Gable Bros. sandlot, Second and Short, and slightly damaged a tenement belonging to Charles H. Frank, Short street near Front.

Mr. J. D. Dye has received a letter from the manager of the Opera-house at Chillicothe, O., stating that the Murray Comedy Company had just closed an engagement in that city. The writer states that he considered it the finest and most up-to-date repertoire company now on the road, and that the managers need feel no hesitancy in recommending it to the theater goers in Mayville.

Edward Mercer, a prominent society man of Louisville, skipped out and left pretty Miss Fannie Witherspoon, whom he had promised to marry. Miss Witherspoon, who belongs to one of the most prominent families in the state, and is a niece of Dr. Witherspoon, the well known Presbyterian Minister, formerly located in this city, is almost prostrated with grief at her lover's strange conduct.

Building Association Receipts.
The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:
Main Group.....$400.00
Limestone.....245.15
People's.....280.00
Total.....$925.15

'SQUIRE JOHN L. GRANT.

Death of This Well Known Citizen at His Home on Limestone Street.

After a lingering illness from stomach trouble the death of 'Squire John L. Grant occurred this morning at 3.30 o'clock at his home, 236 Limestone street. Deceased was born near Summit Station at the old Grant homestead, the property now owned by Mrs. Mary Dimmitt, and was 78 years of age.

His father was the late George Grant and his mother was Miss Jane Lashbrook, a member of one of the oldest families of the county.

He had been twice married, his first wife being Miss Harriet Calvert, daughter of Captain Thomas Calvert, and his second wife Miss Elizabeth Browning, daughter of Eli Browning, once a prominent farmer of Fleming.

Four children survive, one son, William B., and three daughters, Misses Sue and Agnes Browning Grant of this city and Mrs. Dr. F. J. Locke of Newport.

The funeral will take place from his residence Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock under the direction of the Masonic fraternity. Interment in the Mayville Cemetery.

AUGUSTUS SORRIES

Mr. A. Sorries, one of the oldest real estate agents of Aberdeen, died shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon, aged 85.

He had been ill for some time and the event was not unexpected.

For many years Mr. Sorries had been in business in this city, where he was highly regarded.

He leaves three daughters and one son, the latter Mr. A. E. Sorries, who has long been his partner in this city.

The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. J. C. Melloy, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of this city, from his late home, and the burial will be private.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

BALLENGER,
Jeweler and Optician.

BADLY BURNED.

Annie Love Trumbo Last Night Throws a Lighted Lamp at Delia Brown.

Annie Love Trumbo and Delia Brown, both colored, had a quarrel last night at their home on East Fourth street.

When matters got quite warm Annie threw a lighted lamp at Delia.

The lamp hit her in the head, broke and scattered burning oil all over her.

Before the neighbors could smother the flames Delia was badly burned about the face and hands.

Constable McDowell arrested Mrs. Trumbo and lodged her in Jail.

Though painful the injuries of the unfortunate woman are not dangerous.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

The One to Build a Monument on Bluelick Battlefieldground.

Mayor Weaver of Louisville has been presented with a certificate of membership in the Bluelick Monument Association.

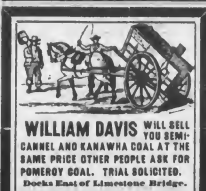

The officers of the Association are—President—Green R. Keller. Vice-Presidents—F. B. Lindsay, J. T. S. Bowen.

Secretary—H. M. Taylor. Directors—Rev. H. M. Scudder, D. D. Hon. James Kennedy, Thomas Humler, Colonel R. T. Durrett, Colonel Bennett H. Young.

The battle of Bluelick was fought August 19th, 1792, and of the 192 Kentuckians who participated 70 were killed or put to death after being wounded.

It is the intention of the Association to erect a monument to these heroes.

Colonel Bennett H. Young of Louisville, in recent researches through Buchanan county, claims to have discovered the grave in which these 70 men were buried.

WILLIAM DAVIS WILL SELL
CANNEL AND KANAWHA COAL AT THE
SAME PRICE OTHER PEOPLE ASK FOR
POWERS COAL. TRIAL SOLIDITY.
Books East of Independence, Kentucky.

A slide in the cut two miles from Mayville Saturday night on the L. and N. delayed the incoming train four hours.

Revenue Collections.
Deputy Collector U. T. West reports the following collections in this city for the week ending Saturday, January 23d, 1898:

Spirits.....$ 1,000.00

Cigs.....99.75

Tobacco.....81.25

Total.....$ 1,180.00

YES, IT PAYS!

People Fast Learning That An Advertisement in The Ledger Brings Results.

It doesn't need a diagram to understand this:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23d, 1898.

Dear Sir: Please take out advertisement of cow for sale, sold her the next day after inserting ad. Yours respectfully,

L. O. MALTBY.

HALBERT INDICTED.

Grand Jury Reported to Have More Than Sufficient Evidence.

The report of the Lewis County Grand Jury, indicting Henry Halbert for the willful murder of Captain Hooker, caused a sensation at Vanceburg on account of the sensational testimony produced.

There was enough evidence produced before the Grand Jury, it is said, to hang Halbert.

The authorities say they will make every effort in their power to capture him.

His wealthy relatives were surprised at the report of the Grand Jury.

They have been claiming that it would be impossible to secure enough testimony to indict him.

Halbert's whereabouts are as yet unknown.

MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S

Chocolate

HIGH SHOES.

J. HENRY PECOR.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Of next week we will hold a special sale of Laces, Embroideries and White Goods. Careful planning, judicious buying will enable us to place before you the greatest bargains of the day.

To make the beautiful more beautiful and the selling price more reasonable is the principle that governed our preparations for this sale.

Tuesday's paper will contain our opening announcement. You can't afford to miss it.

D. HUNT & SON.
